

Kasdi Merbah University of Ouargla

Instructors: Dr. CHEIKH and Dr. NEFNOUF

>>>3rd Year LMD Students

Full Name (Arabic):

Correction of

The Fifth Semester Examination in LiteraturePART ONE (8pts)

Read carefully the questions and circle the letters (A, B, C, or D) corresponding to the right answers.
 #N.B.: Choosing a wrong answer costs MINUS (- 0,5)

- The word "light" in Milton's When I Consider How My Light Is Spent refers to:
  - Light
  - Night
  - Sight
  - Day
- In her work A Vindication of the Rights of Woman, Wollstonecraft called for:
  - Total equality
  - The right to vote
  - Love and pleasure
  - Education and homage
- What is it called when God has already chosen those who are 'blessed' and will be granted entry to heaven?
  - Destiny
  - Predestination
  - The Chosen
  - The Elect
- Which statement below most accurately paraphrases this line from Bradstreet's poem? "If ever man were lov'd by wife, then, thee."
  - I never knew what love meant until I became your wife
  - No husband has ever loved his wife more than you love me
  - No wife has ever loved her husband more than I love you
  - I never have loved you more than I do at this moment

PART TWO (12 pts)

1- Paraphrase or explain briefly the WHOLE quote and mention the underlined figure of speech (FOS)

"...It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again." The Parable of The Prodigal Son

We... should... be... happy and celebrate the return of your brother

because he was sinner and he repented (FOS) Metaphor

"...the books written on this subject by men who, considering females rather as women than human creatures."

A Vindication of the Rights of Woman

Many thinkers wrote books about the status of women at her time considering them as source of pleasure rather than rational creatures (FOS) Simile

2. Read the following passages carefully

<sup>1</sup> Kings represent the Divine Majesty and have been <sup>2</sup> appointed to Him to carry out His purposes. <sup>3</sup> Respecting kings are bound together. " Bishop Jacques Bossuet

"Whenever the ruler endeavors to take away the property of the people, or reduce them to slavery...they are removed from any further obedience..." John Locke, The Second Treatise of Government (1690)

"That whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the <sup>1</sup> Right of the People to alter <sup>2</sup> or abolish it." Thomas Jefferson, The Declaration of Independence (1776)

In the light of these passages and of what you have studied so far, write a concise and precise paragraph CONTRASTING the political thoughts of Puritanism and the Enlightenment.

N.B.: Writing skills are highly considered (Organization, Grammar, punctuation, and handwriting).

Answers May Vary

Puritanism

The Enlightenment

- ① Kings represent God v.s Kings represent people
- ② They are appointed by God v.s They can remove them and elect others
- ③ Total obedience to Kings v.s relative obedience

Other answers might be accepted

Weigh before you say