

Third Year Licence:

I will never forget my trip to England, it was my first time on a plane, crossing the Mediterranean, I felt afraid during taking off and there were no turbulences Alhamdo li Allah, we arrived safe and sound and booked in a hotel downtown, it was very close to most London landmarks, it was severely cold and it was sometimes snowing by night

Dear Sir,

In response to your correspondence of December 10th 2020 for which we acknowledge receipt. We kindly advise you that the Rector of the University and the Dean of the faculty have approved your registration application.

Thanks and regards.
